The Regional Competition Winner competes FREE at the National the SPEC MIX BRICKLAYER 500 bricklaying championship. The National event held in Las Vegas Convention Center during the World of Concrete / World of Masonry trade show is supported by 15 or more regional qualifying contests that take place throughout North America.

"Who is the World's Best Bricklayer?" This competition is a true test of masons' skill, speed and stamina as journeymen level bricklayers race to install over 500 bricks in just 60-minutes.

Established in 2003 to promote masonry construction and to showcase the craftsmanship of masons across the world, as many as 20 highly skilled teams consisting of a mason and tender put their talent, strategy and physical endurance to the ultimate test.

The SPEC MIX BRICKLAYER 500 has the largest winner's purse of any construction trade competition in the U.S. with approximately $100,000 in cash and prizes including a new FORD F250 4x4 XLT truck. The competition has four awards: 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place, which are based on the highest net brick count after subtracting for any quality violations. The fourth award, Top Craftsman, is judged as the wall demonstrating the best craftsmanship with over 500 total brick and zero criteria infractions.
